

Theme: Mary, Her Path To Holiness

Seventh Day The Wedding at Cana

Grace and Intention:

Let us pray for the grace to possess a genuine passion for the Kingdom.

Let us also pray that we may heed Mary's words, "Do whatever He tells you," and do our part in extending God's Kingdom here on earth.

Reading John 2:1-12

Reflection:

Mary was sensitive to the needs of the couple and the community. She felt for the bride and the groom, thought of their embarrassment and responded to their predicament. Here, too, Mary manifests her deep faith and confidence in her Son. She involves Him in the solution because she knew He could do something about it. Today, we are addressed by the same words: "Do whatever He tells you."

(moment of silence)

Prayer:

Mary, Handmaid of the Lord, at your insistence, your Son changed water into wine. Pray for us, that like you, we may be attentive to the needs of others. Repeat to us unceasingly, "Do whatever He tells you." ~ so that as true disciples of Jesus we may be full of zeal in working for the kingdom.

Glory Be. . . .
